

Everywhere and Nowhere The Quest for True Belonging And Standing Alone.

Sacred Circle Retreat

September 27-29, 2024

Come join us on a journey inward toward your authentic self. Discover what holds you back, experiences that consciously or unconsciously keep you from knowing and living an authentic life. Learn to release what keeps you captive in a “life of quiet desperation” —Henry David Thoreau.

Each man brings personal experiences that have held him back. At this retreat you will have the opportunity to release what stops you from being authentic and whole. In a safe, nonjudgemental environment you will be free to go where you are willing to go assisted by other men. We won't tell you where to go or what to find. We will facilitate your search and help you release what's asking to be released.

A Gathering of Men invites you into our Sacred Circle Retreat this September to find your next step potentially by being moved by other men doing their own work. Other men from all walks of life will be there to give from their own unique wisdom experiences to open you onto a path that's yours alone, not laid out by anyone else.

Come join us. All of us who have journeyed on previous weekends will give and share encouragement on this life-enhancing experience.
